How Evaporative Coolers Work

A simple example is the cooling you feel when stepping out of a swimming pool—the water evaporates quickly from your body, taking heat with it. Evaporative coolers do essentially the same thing by drawing hot air through wet pads using a fan or blower. As water evaporates from the pads, it takes heat from the air with it, resulting in up to 25°F cooler air being discharged from the unit.

Energy Savings

An evaporative cooler consumes only one-fourth of the electricity of a refrigerated air conditioning unit.

HERE'S WHAT ELSE YOU NEED TO INCLUDE WITH THIS FORM:

- 1 A copy of your dated sales receipt or contractor invoice showing the manufacturer, model number and price of the evaporative cooler purchased.
- 2 A copy of a recent PNM residential electric bill.

Incomplete information will delay or disqualify your rebate. Allow 6-8 weeks for rebates to be processed. All rebate requests must be postmarked no later than December 31, 2022.

OTHER WAYS TO SAVE

- 1 If you have refrigerated air conditioning, you can become a PNM Power Saver today, help New Mexico reduce electric demand, and ensure a brighter future for many seasons to come. For details, visit PNMpowersaver.com.
- 2 The PNM Home Energy Checkup gives residential customers a snapshot of how their home's lighting, appliances and cooling systems use energy to help pinpoint opportunities to save. For details, visit PNM.com/checkup.
- 3 Replacing incandescent light bulbs with energy-efficient LEDs is a simple way to save energy in your home daily without having to spend a lot of money. For details about the Home Lighting Discount Program, visit PNM.com/instantdiscounts.

ATTENTION LANDLORDS:

PNM Cooling Rebates are paid to the electric account holder unless the following process is followed:

1. Speak to your tenant about your plan to install an energy-efficient evaporative cooler in their rental space and confirm they are willing to assign the rebate to you.
2. Have the tenant sign the Landlord Waiver Form, which may be obtained on PNM.com/coolrebate or by calling (866) 678-5163.
3. Have the tenant complete the 'Customer Information' section of this form and ask them to provide a copy of their most recent PNM electric bill.
4. List the landlord payment information on the "Payee" lines of this form.
5. Submit everything (application form, waiver form, invoice/receipt, and the tenant's PNM electric bill) to the mailing address shown above or go online to PNM.com/coolrebate. Note: Landlord waivers submitted separately and after payment processing has begun will result in the rebate being paid to the PNM electric account holder on file.
