Customers can receive bill help at PNM's largest assistance event of the year

(Albuquerque, NM) – PNM is inviting limited-income customers to receive help with their electric bill, and more, at the 2026 Community Assistance Fair. The event happens on Saturday, October 24 at 10 a.m., bringing together more than 40 community organizations to help individuals and families connect with resources that support basic and emergency needs. The free, family-friendly event offers on-site utility bill assistance and direct access to programs that help reduce monthly costs and improve household stability.

Customers should bring their past-due utility bill, along with a current SNAP or LIHEAP award letter.

The New Mexico Gas Company and the Bernalillo County Water Utility Authority will also be there to help people struggling to pay their gas and water bills. Also available is free clothing, flu shots, job training, and more.
