More than 1,400 New Mexicans receive help with electric, gas, water, food, clothing and more at PNM's largest assistance event of 2026

(Albuquerque, NM) – PNM welcomed more than 1,400 people at its Oct. 24 Community Assistance Fair where limited-income New Mexicans received help paying their electric, gas, and water bills. Attendees also received free food, clothing, flu shots and support services from more than 40 local agencies

During the four-hour event, the PNM Good Neighbor Fund awarded more than $100,000 to nearly 600 qualified families to help them pay their PNM bill. PNM also provided nearly $10,000 in Walmart gift cards to people who attended the event and participated in a raffle activity.

"Our commitment to customers goes beyond providing electricity. It's about creating good energy in our communities by connecting people with the support they need," said Lisa Goodman, Vice President of Investor and Community Relations for PNM. "When partners from all over New Mexico unite like this, the impact is powerful."

Each year the PNM Good Neighbor Fund distributes hundreds of thousands of dollars to thousands of limited-income families in the areas PNM serves. This program is funded through the generosity of PNM employees, shareholders and customers who choose to donate.
